

2.2.1.2 REACHING AGE 22 – FOSTER POPULATION

An individual under the foster population who met the age criterion when he or she began a subsidized job may remain in the TMJ program after reaching age 22. This applies to individuals who are working in a subsidized job at the time they reach age 22. The individual may remain in the program until they complete that subsidized job.